THREE CENTS

Its Glenover Inn

Good food and a good place to stay at a reasonable price is always in demand. Hence it is interesting to know such places. Glenover Inn, located on Winchester Road just beyond the Auditorium, will attempt to meet such needs by providing attractive meals, afternoon tea and comfortable rooms. The inn is located where there is an excellent view and pleasant quietness that comes from being off the main roads.

Mr. and Mrs. Hermann W. Zinach, the owners and managers, have been working for almost a year putting the inn into first-class condition. For 20 years they lived in Mount Vernon, N. Y., where Mrs. Zinach managed a private rooming house and her husband was a florist. They are members of the St. Paul's Lutheran Church of Mount Vernon. They are friends of Mr. and Mrs. Lucius P. Janeway, former owners, who have been invited to attend the opening.

Neighbors and visitors are welcome to the inn at any time, and especially at the formal opening Sunday after-

He entered the employ of the American Express Company and served in various capacities in West Brookfield, Westfield and North Adams, finally becoming a superintendent in Springfield from which position he became retired 25 years ago. Mount Hermon Memorial Chapel was the scene of an interesting wedding ceremony on Sunday afternoon, August 17, when Miss Phyllis Elizabeth Ruhl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hesser Clapham Ruhl, of Ashuelot Road, and Sidney Hobart Given, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney H. Given, also of Ashuelot Road, were united in a single ring service with Rev. Lawrence C. Sibley, pastor of the Baptist Church in Cavendish, Vt., officiating.

Carlton H. L'Hommiedieu provided the bridal music and played the traditional wedding marches. The bride's attendant was Miss Barbara Given, sister of the groom, and the best man was Kenneth Ruhl, brother of the bride. The ushers were Donald Colby, Forster Ruhl and Manuel Mello. The father of the bride gave her in marriage.

The bride wore a gown of white satin bodice, skirt and train with shoulder length veil and Juliet cap. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis. The maid of honor wore a pink taffeta gown and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

IF LOVE SHOULD COUNT YOU WORTHY

If love should count you worthy and should deign
One day to seek your door and be your guest,
Pause e'er you draw the bolt and bid him rest
If in your old content you would remain:
For not alone he cometh; in his train
Are angels of the mist: the lonely guest
Dreams of the unfulfilled, the unpossessed,
And sorrow, and life's immortal pain.
He wakes desires you never may forget;
He shows you stars you never saw before;
He makes you feel with him forevermore
The burden of the world's divine regret.

How wise you were to open not—and yet—
How poor if you should turn him from your door!

Save With A Bank Account

Your reward for saving may be a vacation trip, the pleasure of seeing your son graduate from college, the joy of owning your own home . . . that depends on you.

But above any other reward is the feeling of security and self-confidence which a growing cash reserve gives.

This bank will be glad to be of service to you.
